

UNIVERSIDAD DE MALAGA (Spain)

The University of Malaga (UMA), founded in 1972, is one of Spain's leading public universities, known for its commitment to innovation, research, and internationalization. Located in the vibrant city of Malaga, UMA offers a wide range of undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral programs across various disciplines, including humanities, science, technology, and social sciences. With a strong focus on research and development, the university actively participates in global academic networks, providing students with numerous international exchange opportunities and fostering a dynamic and inclusive learning environment.

Available Quotas

STA (Staff mobility for teaching): 1

Staff Mobility for Teaching enables teaching/academic staff members to conduct lectures at a partner higher education institution. To qualify as a valid activity, it is essential to deliver a minimum of 8 lesson hours.

Language of teaching/training: English/Spanish

Target Audience

Academic Staff: Computer Engineering

Grant Offer: 160 € daily allowance for 7 (5+2) days as well as travel expenses of 820€

Additional requirement: Mobility Agreement for Teaching must be signed by the candidate, home and host universities.

International Relations Office at European University: international.office@eu.edu.ge

Erasmus+