

University of Zagreb (Croatia)

The University of Zagreb, established in 1669, is the largest and oldest university in Croatia and one of the leading academic institutions in Southeast Europe. With a rich tradition of excellence in education and research, it offers a broad range of undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate programs across diverse fields, including humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, engineering, and biomedicine. The university is committed to fostering innovation, critical thinking, and international cooperation, preparing students to address global challenges and advance in their careers.

Available Quotas

STA (Staff mobility for teaching): 2

Staff Mobility for Teaching enables teaching/academic staff members to conduct lectures at a partner higher education institution. To qualify as a valid activity, it is essential to deliver a minimum of 8 lesson hours.

Language of teaching/training: English

Target Audience

Academic Staff: Business Administration and Economics

Grant Offer: 148 € daily allowance for 7 (5+2) days as well as travel expenses of 395€

Additional requirement: Mobility Agreement for Teaching must be signed by the candidate, home and host universities.

International Relations Office at European University: international.office@eu.edu.ge

